DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-3,7,15-22,26 and 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dakeya et al. (6075491).

Regarding Claims 1-3,7,15-22,26 and 34, Dakeya et al. show in Fig. 2, an antenna comprising a plurality of bases 1a-d stacked in the thickness direction, conductor patterns 2a-2h,3 formed on the bases where at least on of the patterns 2a-2h is formed in a zigzag pattern, and a conducting section (vias) 19 interconnects the patterns, and wherein the patterns form at least one inductance component L1 and at least one capacitance component C1 or 13 in Fig. 3, and formed as a parallel resonant circuit in series with circuits 121 and 122, with a feeding section 14, all arranged as claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 4-6,8-14,23-25,27-33 and 35-38 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
